

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana telephone Privacy Law. I enjoy not getting telemarketing calls all hours of the day or night. It should not be changed